

You are invited to Mindstretch. This app works in combination with a Fitbit and a Fitbit app. To work with a Fitbit, you need a Google account since some time. Do you still have a Fitbit account from the past? Then you can continue to use it until 2025. To do so, check the following instruction 'log in with a Fitbit account'.

Do you already have a Google account? Then read the instruction 'log in with a Google-account'.

You don't have a Google-account yet? Create one using the underneath button. Important: first create a Google-account before you log in in the Fitbit-app.

After having created your Google-account, you can continue the onboarding process using the instruction 'log in with a Google-account'.
